Ascension Chapel.

A strawberry festival at Ascension Chapel on Wednesday evening of last week was a very successful affair, and the expectations of the Ladies' Guild were more than realized by the swiftness with which strawberry shortcake, "like that which mother made," and the "other fixin's" for sale, were turned into cash. Sociably it was also a great success, as every one vied with the other in making things pleasant. The affair was enlivened by the presence of of Miss Fannie Seeley, contralto, and Miss Bertha Seeley, soprano, of Prospect Street Baptist Church, who

The chapel is also a good place to go to of a Sunday evening, and will be open 2.30 P. M. Prayer-meeting at 7.45 Fri. and a pretly little edifice. It is an inviting place to go to and hear good singing, with a short sermon by the rector, Bev. L. Levering.

Tuesday evening the people were honored with the presence of Blahop Lines, who administered the rite of confirmation to four persons, after which he preached an eloquent sermon. At the close of the service a reception was held in the Sunday-school down stairs. The Bishop was particularly pleased with the spirit of enterprise shown by those who had been the means of starting this new field of labor here. Very many were present, including the rector of Ohrtst Church, Bev. E. A. White, and Mrs. White. Refreshments were served, and a very sociable time was enjoyed by all.
